Why is my gel not clear?

Tom Parks - 2025-02-05 - Problems

Our gel base is clear, however, once we add powder to create your compounded medication, the gel will take on the colour of the powder that has been added – usually white. The final product will resemble a light cream but will still act as a gel.